

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN RE: ALL CIVIL MATTERS)
ASSIGNED TO JUDGE DONALD C.)
COGGINS JR.)
STANDING ORDER REGARDING
SUR-REPLIES

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that parties may not file, nor will the Court consider, any sur-reply to a motion absent leave of the Court. A party seeking to file a sur-reply is directed to file a motion for leave to do so and attach the proposed sur-reply to such motion. A motion for leave to file a sur-reply must be filed within five (5) days of the filing of any reply. Neither the motion for leave to file a sur-reply nor the proposed sur-reply shall exceed ten (10) pages. Parties are reminded of their duty to confer with opposing counsel prior to filing a motion for leave to file a sur-reply pursuant to Local Civil Rule 7.02 (D.S.C.).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
